Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

Looking, looking, looking unto Jesus

The inspired penman of the book of Hebrews continually appealed to his struggling brethren to not turn their back on Christ and give up their faith. As he emphasised their need for steadfastness, he penned the grand chapter of Hebrews 11. We know and love this great chapter, highlighting the faithful obedience of some Old Testament heroes. Why does he spend 40 verses on this?

The author wanted to remind his readers of the great "cloud of witnesses" that had gone before and to urge his fellow Christians to follow in their faithful footsteps. That would be so meaningful to these Christians of Jewish background. But then he circled back to his main point. He did not simply want his readers to look at their heroes of old; he wanted them "looking unto Jesus" (Heb. 12:1-2)!

Friend, are you struggling with your faith? Are you questioning things? Then spend some time—some serious time—"looking unto Jesus." Investigate Him. Dig into the Bible. See if doing such doesn't build you up.

It's the only connection we have to God, and it's the only link that sustains us.

If you are struggling more than likely you have lost your grip on Jesus.

Have a great week

Love

Dereck
