Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

"I am poor and needy"

As you think about King David in the Bible—growing up in the household of Jesse, being chosen at a young age to be the next king of Israel, being close friends with the king's son, becoming king and living in the king's house—it is unlikely that you have ever pictured him as "poor and needy." Yet, that is exactly how he describes himself in Psalm 70:5.

We hear "poor and needy," and we immediately think materially, but that is not likely the case for David in this text. David faced significant opposition and cried out to God to deliver him. David was not a panhandler with a cardboard sign on the streets, but he was "poor and needy" for God, desperately calling upon God to "make haste" to "help" him.

Are you "poor and needy" for God? Some Christians are living rather contented lives when it comes to God. They need Him when they need Him, but they're primarily good on their own. Let us not wait until we face opposition to realise how much we need God!

I pray that your hunger for God will inspire a closer walk with Him.

Love in Christ

Dereck
