Living a new life in Christ

From the desk of Dereck...

Come short of it

Coming up short can be heartbreaking, frustrating and even life-threatening. Have you watched a professional golfer's putt come just a few centimetres short? Have family members stopped just three credits short of a university degree? Do you know any fellow workers who always seem to stop short of finishing a job?

Sometimes, coming up short can be trivial, but it can be eternally detrimental when it comes to the Christian life. The inspired author of the book of Hebrews was pleading with Christians to NOT "drift away" and "depart from the living God" (Heb. 2:1; 3:12). He sought to motivate them by dwelling on the "promise that remains of (the people of God) entering His rest" (4:1, 9). But he issued a sobering warning, "let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it" (4:1).

Can you fathom a fate worse than 'coming short' of heaven? The author later emphasizes this, saying, 'Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall' (4:9). Are you exerting every effort to not come short of it?

We pray that this week will be evidenced by a life that is completely and utterly invested in a life in Christ.

Love in Him

Dereck
